Judges Critique

Temperaments were all excellent, most had good dentition & regular scissor bites, I did not encounter any Bad mouths, teeth were all well cared for , much more attention to feet is needed, coats were generally Good, though a few thick ones were in evidence, presentation has improved since I last awarded C.C.â€™s.

Typical b/w in peak of condition, pure white ground colour with shiny spotting, excellent pigmentation & darkest of eye, solid bone, feet well manicured & cared for, good steady driving movement, smartly presented & very well handled, getting the best out of him, unlucky to meet 1st in such sparkling form.

Marie Steen Memorial Stakes Open.(4,1a)

Extremely fit liver dog who really makes the most of himself, short-coupled with good body length, kind expression, masculine head nicely in proportion, well broken ears, arched, well defined neck, pleasing top-line, Stood naturally four square, plenty of substantial bone, tight feet making him stand well up on his pads, muscled hind quarters, defined & firm, another stallion of the breed, excelled in movement & handled in a quiet manner as it should be, years of experience coming to the fore & proving what is expected of them both, a very close contest giving the C.C. winner a run for his money, a hard act to follow & well earned Res. C.C.

2nd â€“ Coates â€“ Cubalibre Top Spot.

Again, unlucky to come up against a dog in such fine form, but, I think his day will come.

3rd â€“ Ch. & Ir. Ch. Tollwood Lionel at Kilndandy.

Minor Puppy Bitch (11,2a)

1st - Newtonâ€™s â€“ Tynevale Tuscan Tart.

Cute liver girl, rich in colour, prettiest of heads, feminine without being snipey, liked her overall make & shape, Lots of good round bone to grow into, being her first show she did really well, I shall watch her future progress With interest.

2nd â€“ Pageâ€™s â€“ Winflash Magic Mystery.

Another super black bitch from this kennel, she looks so like her dam, I found it quite remarkable, well up on her feet, really compact toes & tidy nails, good balance of decoration, mature in attitude for one so young, nice head & ears, well handled, has great potential.

3rd â€“ Richardsonâ€™s â€“ Buffrey Lightening Strikes Among Mapplewell.

This beautiful puppy takes my breath away, such a pretty feminine head & face, really dark eyes , designer spotting, perfect neck which fits in to well laid shoulder correct top-line, tight feet, nicely arched toes, defined hocks, Second thigh developing , pasterns well sprung, sufficient spring of rib, text book confirmation, moves effortlessly with a fair reach of stride, presentation is top class as is the norm from this kennel, was serious contender for Res. 2nd â€“ Polhillâ€™s â€“ Kymvale Savannah

Short coupled b/w youngster, evenly decorated, good pigmentation, clean head, defined stop, pretty ears, plenty of bone, capacious heart room, tight cat feet, moved gracefully, handled well, should have good future.

Another attractive b/w young bitch with a flamboyant outgoing personality, so feminine & elegant, her well manicured feet are an example to all, feet round with well arched toes allowing her to move correctly, even decoration, good length of leg, compact body, streamlined & powerful in stride, muscle is defined & solid,

Well presented & handled, a close contest with 1st in puppy for Res. C.C., but won it on character.

Pretty liver, correct size, marked evenly, plentiful in bone, and substance, flowing lines, well laid & muscular shoulder, correct length of back, moved steadily but still needs to tighten, floor surface did not help, well schooled & attentive to handler.

3rd â€“ Pickupâ€™s â€“ Roadcoach Ribbons and Roses. J.W.

Maiden Bitch (6,1a)

1st â€“ Winflash Magic Mystery.

2nd â€“ Johnsonâ€™s â€“ Tynevale Troublesome Tart.

More lightly marked liver, still of rich colour, clean & muscular shoulder, in good coat & condition, appealing face with intelligent expression, which I liked, moved well, handler works hard to get the most out of her, feet could be a little tighter.

3rd â€“ Lock-McFadzeenâ€™s â€“ Sassafras Infra Red.

Novice Bitch (8,1a)

1st â€“ Winflash Magic Mystery.

2nd â€“ Richardsonâ€™s â€“ Pearly Naughty Las at Jomihvar.

Pretty b/w girl, reminds me of my first Dalmatian, really dark eye, feminine head, arched neck, level top-line, strong hocks, rounded hind quarters, attentive to her handler, moves really well around the ring, a little more muscle would be to her advantage.

2nd â€“ Pickupâ€™s â€“ Roadcoach Ribbons and Roses.

The best pigmentation here to-day, superb condition, sleek, glossy coat, well cared for feet, really up on her toes, well schooled, impressive overall picture, muscling up well with second thigh moulding nicely, presented in first class condition, very pleasing head & dark eye.

3rd â€“ Pilgrimâ€™s â€“ Olbero One To Charm at Weaponness.

P. Grad. Bitch.(7,3a).

1st â€“ Lock â€“ McFadzeenâ€™s â€“ Tyrodal Ultra Violet by Sassafras.

Pleasing liver bitch I have often admired from the ring side, beautiful markingâ€™s, so well placed, really decorative Ears, best of liver colour, plenty of substance, carries herself well, needs a little more muscle, more attention to her feet would improve her overall appearance, considered her for the Res. C.C. but feet let her down, correct tail-set, has potential for the future.

2nd â€“ Williamâ€™s â€“ Phadante Take A Chance On Me.

Well made bitch, though lightly marked, nice turn of stifle, strong hind quarters, sloping shoulder with a fair reach of neck, moved well for her handler, presented in good, clean condition.

Much improved b/w with clean lines, deep chest with plenty of lung & heart room. Compact body, strong rear, Pleasing top-line & tail- set, round bone, much freedom of movement, but toes need to tighten a little, spots well spaced & has dark pigmentation, overall she looks very balanced, moves steady & well, liked her calm manner, Presented well with sleek & glossy coat.

2nd â€“ Clarkeâ€™s â€“ Mapplewell Double Take at Klarkeson.

Larger cast than 1st, but has many virtues, good distribution of spots on well made body, good leg length with Tidy feet & strong pasterns, correct turn of stifle, muscular, well laid shoulder, nicely arched neck, kind face & Expression, moves well.

Open Bitch (8,2a).

1st â€“ Dunnachieâ€™s â€“ Ch. Dvojica Voodoo J.W.

Well known CH. very compact in body, even decoration, correct size & length of back, would like more of an arched neck, not looking her best to-day, (looks to me like hormone problems), but still moved with drive, she always gives her best, so very honest, excellent handling.

2nd â€“ Neath â€“ Dugganâ€™s â€“ Ch. Buffrey Sprig o Mint. J.W.

Longer in back than 1st, excellent pigmentation, clear, defined spotting, in good coat & condition, precise & smooth handling, making the most of her, especially on the move, balanced, with strong driving movement from the hindquarters, correct top-line.
