Judges Critique

A lovely entry for Scotland. When you are judging your own breed (having been in the breed since 1965) it is always hard when you have a clear memory of many years of beautiful specimens & I always hope each I judge that dogs & bitches will come into the ring with some of those qualities. Here, especially in the dogs they were few & far between, the bitches were of a higher quality & with the judicious choice of stud dogs could supply the breed with type & true Dalmatian characteristics. At times in the dogs I felt I was judging any variety Dalmatian - the only common characteristic was spots.

PD (7,1 a) 1 Hartley & Griffiths' Creaganbrec The Favourite at Miragua, black dog, just short of 12 months of age, dense black spotting, has the size, the carriage & the action, balanced in body with good quarters & angles, correct in topline, croup & tailset, he was the only one to catch my eye.BP & CC; 2 Tingey's Holderness Hill Billy by Dallyador, a young liver dog of 6 months, still a baby but I liked the overall picture, well proportioned & balanced though his head is still to finish, well set neck, good bone & quarters, steady in action for his age; 3 Gatheral-Graham's Phaeland Passion Man.
JD (1) 1 Moate's Major
Sheer Will at Sundown, b/s dog with a lovely expression, pleasing spotting, well ribbed but a little long in trim, covers the ground well with good front extension. YD (3,1) 1 Gamble's Mullabuoy Sir Winston, honest dog of good type, size & balance, correct in bone with good rib, correct in forechest with good angles, good outline & pleasing action. RCC; 2 Martland's Hameldal Tribal Shadow at Deefadal, heavier marked than 1 & full of himself, head a little strong in skull & a little too domed, though down in pastern he had quite good "feet, good balance of angles.

DD (3) 1 Major Sheer Will at S; 2 Stiff's
Tynevale Tartan Trooper, liver dog of 7 months, pleasing in many ways though still to come together, good spotting, correct in blade & wither, good angles though a little erratic in action at the moment; 3 Dodds & Pearson's Camargue Eurovision.

PGD (4) 1 Lamb's Dalpetro Dettori, won the class on his balance, good neck & carriage, correct in ribbing & strong in loin. A little light in eye, would prefer more bone; 2 Hosie's Heroic Hector, in general not this dog's day, he stood & moved wide, was allowed to stand with a reached back spoiling his outline. Good forechest, tailset & bone but could have made more of himself on the move; 3 Levy's Motek Nottinghill Norman.

LD (5) 1 Beaumont
& Croft's Koroyza Grippi II Miracolo, black dog, may be a handful but he has a lovely balance, good bone, carriage & angles, liked his head & expression, good earset, good ribbing & spotting. Tail a little low set; 2 Page's Winflash Harvey Wallbanger, though smaller & lighter than 1 another with balance, good carriage, toptine & tail, pleasing on the move; 3 Smith's Dalleaf Mulberry.

0D (8,1)
1 Dunnachie's Ch Sophtspot Sugar Daddy at Drojfca, I found pleasing in outline & a good specimen standing, but here moved far too wide behind. Liked his head with a well set neck. Felt he was a little too heavy in body; 2 Moore's Ch Fincham Trade Wind. better in action than 1 but not in presence, good lines & pleasing expression in eye though not too overdone in angles; 3 Cleland's Dalesbred Larkin About with Deovolante.

PB (12,1) 1 Polhill's Kymvale Savannah, at 10 months of age a pleasing bitch & by far the best in action in this class, feminine & of good type & size, good body & quarters, she flowed & covered the ground with ease; 2 Ward's Frahkish Moon Flower, 7 months bitch, clean lines, clear black spots & was lovely to go over, still to settle in action; 3 Tingey's Phaeland Pheonix Phorever by Dallyador.

JB (6,1) 1 Christie's Sophtspot Snap Crackle N Pop, when matures will have a lot to offer the breed, a week earlier I gave her the puppy group at

The National & she just needs to finish, one I considered for RCC, her time will come; 2 Moore's Manchando Choc Chip Cookie from Fincham, a pretty 8 months liver bitch, very feminine & I liked her head, neck & body. good balance & ribbing, lovely spotting, moves with ease; 3 Clement's Kennies Royal Nuala at Caldecacre.

YB (7,1.)1 S Snap Crackle N Pop; 2 Burton's Hameldal Sunshine Valley, nicely balanced l/s bitch, liver pigment a little dark for me. Good Outline, topline & tailset, balanced in body & quarters, pleasing action; 3 Harrison-Stratford's Dalkereve Dark N Divine.

DB (5,2)1 H Sunshine Valley; 2 Addy's Creaganbrec Raven Black, 11 months b/s, still to finish but coming together well, feminine & well coupled, good ribbing; 3 Page's Winflash Magic Mystery.

PGB (10,3) 1 Locke-McFadzean's Tyrodal Ultra Violet by Sassafras,bitch to like, loved her outline, pleasing head, good carriage & well set neck, well ribbed with pleasing action, another I looked at during the challenge; 2 Smallwood's Mapplewell Dancing Queen of Lascelles, pleasing bitch, not the outline & balance of 1, liked her head & carriage & strength in quarters; 3 Tingey's Olbero One Of Our Own at Dallyador.

LB (9,2) 1 Cuthbertson's Kalsidoni Garnet, I've watched this bitch since she was a puppy & feel she is one of the best this kennel has produced, such flowing lines, a head with correct expression, lovely eye & correct carriage, her neck flows into her wither, in action she flows. CC, her first, & BOB; 2 Beaumont & Croft's Little Miss Fuss Pot for Koroyza, this black bitch really makes the most of herself, pleasing all round with good balance, well ribbed up & good loin, puts all into her action, pretty spotting; 3 Page's Winflash Spring Angel.

OB (5,1) 1 Harrison-Stratford's Acland Dark Daughter by Dalkereve, a bitch who fills the eye with her overall outline & steps out in front in action, clean lines, well muscled, good angles, bone & feet. Just couldn't match Kalsidoni Garnet on the day. RCC.
2. Neath-Duggan's Ch Buffrey Sprig O' Mint, very pleasing but not the style or panache of 1, clean clear spotting, good body & quarters. Didn't extend as well in front as 1.
3. Stocks' Marricdale Miss Dynamite at Nospar.
