Judges Critique

I left Malaga-Spain in the sweltering heat only to arrive in the UK to sweltering heat, it seems when I judge in the UK the heat follows me from Spain. Apart from the weather the running and organisation of this show is somewhat difficult to fault so therefore I would like to thank the Secretary Liz Stannard and her team for a very professional show indeed. I had a good entry in fact the second largest in the Utility group and so my excellent stewards Jane & Bill Gardner had their work cut out. I was pleased with my Dalmatians however the heat unfortunately had to play a big part in my decisions and placing, no doubt some will exchange in future shows. I would say generally the Dalmatians were well turned out, clean coats, well schooled and super temperaments. Thank you all for your entries and it was a pleasure, I had a wonderful day.

DOGS

PD ( 6,2 ) : 1 Tingey's Holderness Hillbilly By Dallyador, super liver puppy and demanded my attention for one so young. Moved with drive a pleasure to award him BPD and BPIB; 2 Coates Buffrey The Shaded Sun At Cubalibre, strong black, dark eyes, good feet and pleasing outline; 3 Goff-leggett's Washakie Nutracker Prince.

OD ( 12,5 ) : 1 Stocks CH Dalmark The Shaded Moon At Nospar. This dog has quality and typical of the Dalmark bred a credit to the breeder. I have admired this dog from puppy and watched his progress to be a true champion, delighted to see that this dog has improved with maturity. I was so pleased that he did not let me down when finally getting my hands on. Today he just flowed around the ring demanding the Judges attention even in the mid day sun, strong powerful front assembly, super bone in fore quarters & rear. Long reach of neck good firm top line and very happy indeed and honoured to award the dog CC to him today, congratulations!

2 Cutt's CH Kaytian Kalypso To Marzelina Yet another quality Dalmatian, by far the best dog class of the day. Good make and shape, correct in size, good liver, flowing mover at one with handler. Good front and top line. Just preferred 1 today and no doubt these two exchange places on many occasions. Once again for me a pleasure to award RCC, great class well done. 3 Fort's, Shulune Double Fantasy.
