Judges Critique

First I would like to thank my stewards for keeping things running like clockwork and also to the exhibitors for a lovely entry. I must admit to being surprised in the great diversity of type within the breed this time, especially the males, bitches were, on the whole, more uniform in type, rear movement left a lot to be desired in many exhibits.

MINOR PUPPY – Dog (Entries 9 – Absentees: 1)

1st Story-Taylor's Major Tornado At Kesteven — promising b/w youngster with a lovely head and eye, well pigmented, strong neck set into good shoulders, nicely proportioned with good bone and standing on tight feet, lovely topline and good tailset, just needs time to mature, moved with good reach and drive.

2nd Ward's Lupiac Pay The Piper – another promising baby with a good head and pleasing expression, strong neck, good bone and feet, not moving as freely as winner but the handlers footwear was not helping.
