Judges Critique

My thanks to the exhibitors for a quality entry & to the experienced stewards who kept everything in order.
I would have liked more time to judge. Perhaps in future judges will have a limit of 100 or so dogs.
Almost without exception temperaments were good. Exhibits had good muscletone very few had coat problems, several lost higher placings as feet were not tight & well padded.A carriage dog should be capable of hours of roadwork.
The main winners were, in my opinion, examples of what to aim for. Placings in higher classes could easily change.
Thank you for a memorable day

YD (7)
1 McCarthy's Ch/lr ChTollwood Lionel at Kilndandy, liver with substance & quality, level topline & correct tailset, pleasing decoration on beautiful coat, good tight feet, moved well; 2 Oatridge's Dalehouse Rockafella, shorter coupled black, good make & shape, excellent coat, attractive spotting, good feet, moved effortlessly; 3 Cleland's Deovolante Don Alfonso, attractive, black, good topline, in hard condition. Feet could be tighter but moved well.

PD (13,2) 1 Pascoe's Candidate The Fire Starter, in every respect-a lovely puppy, excellent make & shape, well balanced, endearing expression dark eye, used neck to advantage, level topline & tail carried to perfection, good feet, correct paces & moved with drive, superb coat, most attractive spotting great ring presence.
