Judges Critique

My thanks to the exhibitors for a quality entry & to the experienced stewards who kept everything in order.

I would have liked more time to judge. Perhaps in future judges will have a limit of 100 or so dogs.

Almost without exception temperaments were good. Exhibits had good musculature very few had coat problems, several lost higher placings as feet were not tight & well padded. A carriage dog should be capable of hours of roadwork.

The main winners were, in my opinion, examples of what to aim for. Placings in higher classes could easily change.

Thank you for a memorable day
