Judges Critique

Thank you to everyone who supported my first appointment at this level. Overall I was delighted with the exhibits who were presented in clean condition with coats mainly in good order. I was looking for an elegant dog with free flowing movement who could go all day and I was not disappointed

MPD(4) 1st Croftâ€™s Doubtwell Showstopper Caught my eye the minute he came into the ring, this bright alert puppy, mature for his age was positive, precise & correct in movement, deep chest, nice tight elbows with good turn of stifle, my eye kept going back to him in the lineup and I could not deny him the RDCC 2nd Gates-Raw & Gartonâ€™s Dalendale Quiet Riot another well developed for his age, well schooled & alert to his handler, evenly decorated with sound movement. 3rd Kaalâ€™s Dalmark the Sandman

PD (3 1a) 1st Kaalâ€™s Dalmark the Sandman Good head with long reach of neck to well set shoulder, sound in construction with neat cat feet. 2nd Burrows Daedalus Deacon Blue at Shacarlu Pleasing expression with dark eyes, well balanced, good topline & tailset, preferred the movement on 1st.

JD (7 2a) 1st Roseâ€™s Candials Run Forest Run expressive head with good ear carriage, good reach of neck into even topline well off for bone, good hindquarters, excellent tail carriage, neat tight feet, a good striding graceful movement around the ring. 2nd Story-Taylorâ€™s Major Tornado at Kesteven Good bone, feet and coat, strode out well to cover ground effortlessly. 3rd Goodswenâ€™s Tamilanda Pink Vigilante from Alpha.
