BOURNEMOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP DOG SHOW
DALMATIANS
Thank you for all your entries on a busy week in the show calendar. My stewards Linda Jones and Marion Carter did a great job as always. The ring was a bit bumpy and on a slope but with a bit of moving around it worked and gave ringside and myself a good view of the dogs to their best advantage.
Temperaments were good, just loved to see quite a few free standing on a loose lead, without the need to constantly feed them.
MPD 2
1st Christies Sophspot Gold Dust What a lovely 8 month old baby to start the classes. A confident happy quality liver and white, he has a kind expression, with dark amber eyes and good head shape, used his ears well and correct shoulder placement. Good round bone and cat feet, excellent angulation , well set on tail finished with good colour even spotting, moving out well . Very promising puppy.
2nd Hopkin and Hobbs Rapanooey Rasputin A nice 10 month old black and white who has a super head and dark eye, well placed shoulders round bone and tight feet a little apprehensive to start with but soon settled to move well with a reachy stride, both puppies of correct size for age.
PD 3 (1)
1st Sophtspot Gold Dust
2nd Littler Dalmark the Wizard of Oz Liver and white well muscled upstanding young man good shoulder placement clean neck and firm topline, good rear angulation . Well off for bone, moved with purpose, nice colour and even spotting.

JD 4(1)
