Judges Critique

Dalmatians at Windsor Championship Show 2016.

Dalmatians had a good sized ring and we were all grateful for the shaded area when the sun emerged. The ground was uneven in parts and was sloping. I must say the handlers seemed to cope better than some exhibits. I tried to use the ring to best advantage when moving the dogs.

I was more than happy with my main winners but some exhibits disappointed when moving. Hind quarters are not as developed on some, compared to fronts which have improved. Too many moved close behind. Tails are also in need of attention when breeding with short tails prevalent, some set and carried too high. Mouths were excellent, I only found one with a level bite, and temperaments were very good.
