Judges Critique

My thanks to the exhibitors for the wonderful entry of 107 Dalmatians at a time of year when many have other priorities to attend to. Thank goodness we were not scheduled for the following day when the entry was decimated by the heavy snowfall. I was disappointed that many exhibits were off-balance when they began to move, which resulted in atypical movement with dogs winding erratically or crabbing, rather than moving in a straight line. Unfortunately, a judge can only go on what he/she sees in that brief 30 seconds or so. Hence, for many exhibits, the opportunity to impress was lost. The limit and open classes were particularly enjoyable, offering a choice of quality exhibits. Needless to say, I was absolutely delighted with my main winners, even if I surprised myself with my choices – but that is the advantage of judging the dogs on the day!

LD (10 1) A class of some quality in depth.

VD (6 2)

- 1 Alexander Ch Offordale Chevalier JW. Need to go over this b/w to appreciate his qualities. Still at his peak at 7y and displays all the attributes required of an endurance trotting dog. Sound construction from nose to tail, a body built on a solid skeleton of correct conformation and complemented by well toned (but not over-developed) muscle, and the balance of length to height of body to facilitate the necessary long stride to perform his role as a carriage dog. A sheer joy to watch on the move, with a powerful reach and drive and long effortless stride, allowing him to flow round the ring. On the day, the epitome of 'fit for function'. BV, CC & BOB Defined wither leading to level topline strong loin and correct tailset. Excellent depth and length of rib. - 1 Healey Doshaburi The Cloud Dragon At Hebemor. Unfortunately, this l/w didn't get it together in the YD class, but appeared a different dog here! Lovely ear carriage and correct amber eye colour contributed to kind expression. Generous bone and well muscled. Deep chest and nice spring of rib. Moved with balance and a relaxed lengthy stride.

OB (12 4)

1 David & Saunders Ch Dalticino Interlagos From Dallydyl JW Sh.CM. Judged this l/w almost 2 years ago as a puppy and was impressed then. Nothing has changed since - she has simply matured to perfection. Presented in firm condition, powerfully built and oozing substance, but not at the expense of sacrificing femininity. Defined forechest, super length depth and spring of rib, correct underline. Defined wither and level topline. Generous bone, straight foreleg, good spring of pastern. Powerful and well angulated quarters used to cover the ground with a flowing ease. Very worthy CC

VB (2 0) 2 quality b/w bitches who are each excellent representatives of the breed quality. Definitely a class requiring 2 red cards!

1 Gibbs Ch Phadante Dixie Lily JW. Substantial 8y b/w. Excellent body proportions with deep chest, level topline and muscular loin. Sound front with defined sternum and tight feet. Well off for bone. Good reach and driving movement.

2 Thorner Ch Tolutim Drambuie Sh.CM. 9y b/w who scores in profile, displaying overall balance and correct body proportions. Appealing head and expression, lovely arched neck. Sound quarters angulation giving a smooth flowing action. Handled to advantage

GCB (3 0)

1 Bardey Dalcross Caro Emerald. Feminine, richly-coloured l/w with lovely head and expression framed by well carried broken ears. Good front and rear conformation used to effect. Moved steadily, holding her topline well.
