Judges Critique

Driffield 2018

I would like to thank all the exhibitors who returned to this show after the dreadful weather that we had last year, this year was a lovely clean crisp clear day just right for dog showing. In general the exhibits were clean and not a grumble was heard all day.

Poor handling and the lack of training seemed to be prevalent in the lower classes, I realise that puppies are allowed to be â€œnaughtyâ€• but as they grow older learning how to behave in the show ring is a must, constant need for baiting, having to be stacked, moving on a tight lead, all creates a less favourable picture . The Standard says â€œoutgoing and friendlyâ€• when a dog is shown so rigidly and tight, that it is all lost and we are moving away from the true Dalmatian show dog.
