Judges Critique

East of England Agricultural Show 2019 Dalmatians Kevan Berry (Ricksbury)

I really enjoyed my day judging the breed with Challenge Certificates for the first time. I was only sorry my mentors in the breed Susan Graham and Caroline Gatheral were not there. No doubt Susan was screaming from above hopefully, on her best behaviour.

The breed standard states that the breed is capable of great endurance. In order for this they have to have good legs and feet i.e. feet round and compact. I was sorry to see many had splade feet. There was also a high percentage of very high tail carriages. All of the exhibits were well presented and all the winners were well applauded. I would like that thank the exhibitors for making this such a special day for me.

MPD (4,0)

1 Bliss & Pearson Kelevra What A Guy A black well spotted of ideal size. He has a beautiful head with neat well set ears. A balanced body and has good legs and feet. His temperament was quite delightful, this was proven when he slipped his lead and went to play with the dogs in the next ring. He was actually rugby tackled to the ground by a gentleman and returned to his owner, having had great fun. He certainly has a wonderful disposition. This is a puppy with a great future ahead of him. I was delighted to award him the RDCC and Best Puppy in Breed and he was later 3rd in a strong Utility Puppy Group under breed specialist Mr Samson.

2 Sampson Dalstorm Golden Guinea another lovely puppy of ideal size and proportions. Just lost out on a slightly slacker topline. He has a good tail set and croup and excellent legs and feet and shows great promise.

3 Harrison-Stratford Dalkereve Dark at Midnight

PD (3,0)

1 Alexander Offordale Vivaldi a well-marked black spotted with a good head and well-set eyes. He has a very good neck and shoulders. A well-balanced body and he moved with great freedom around the ring.

2 McMillan Keiradal Captain Jack for Dalyance a slightly bigger black spotted of nice type. Not quite the topline of the winner but should mature nicely.

3 Harrison-Stratford Dalkereve Dark at Midnight

YD (4, 0)

1 Sims Mullabuoy Magic Man for Snowspeeder JW clear winner of this class. He is a lovely size and so well balanced. Distinction black spotting. Has good balance throughout with excellent movement. He has good legs and feet enabling him to move soundly both back and front.

2 Cowton Tamilanda Continental Wave lovely young dog, of ideal size and has a strong neck which was slightly arched. Has a good deep chest. He just needs to settle on the move.

DCC & BOB and later shortlisted in the Utility Group. A breed specialist commented on how lovely the dog looked in the group, that comment meant a lot to me.
