Judges Critique

DALMATIAN

I would like to sincerely thank the RKC and the Crufts Committee for their invitation to judge Dalmatians at the 2024 Crufts Show. This was indeed a great honour.

I was so pleased with the entry of 223 Dalmatians, the highest in the Utility Group, and thank every exhibitor for entering their dogs for me to assess. There were only 18 absentees which resulted in a long day of judging, particularly with the scheduled 8 am start. I realise that this means an even earlier start for exhibitors travelling to the Show.

The size of the entry meant that only a minority of the exhibits achieved a placing. If you were one of the exhibitors who was unfortunate, not to be placed on the day, then take comfort that you qualified and took part in the World's Greatest Dog Show, and of course you each took the best dog home!

I was determined to remain honest to myself and judge the dogs on their performance in the ring on the day, and I surprised myself with some of my decisions which made the occasion even more rewarding and enjoyable. I found an abundance of quality exhibits, and decisions were made after much careful deliberation, and often on finer points of distinction. I sensed some very sporting cheering and applause from the ringside, which is to the credit of Dalmatian fanciers who are by and large a very friendly and supportive group.

I would like to say a special thank you to my two experienced and capable stewards, Mr Stef Kazana and Mr Bill Ashcroft who contributed so much to the smooth and timely running of the ring.

Once again, thank you everyone for making my day so special.
