Charlotte Jenvall (Denmark)

Bitch report

My grateful thanks to all the exhibitors who entered and allowed me the privilege of expressing my opinion of their wonderful Dalmatians. It was an honour.
I was deeply honoured 4 years ago when the club members voted me this Appointment.
I am most grateful for the assistance and help provided by the three stewards: Sarah- Jane Finch, Clair Parker, and Grace Rutherford who not only gave up their day but also kept me on track throughout a long day Judging. What would the Club do without our magnificent helpers.
I also commend Josi Karl and Janet Saunders for their seamless oversight of the event.
Today I was spoilt for choice, in every class I had competitors who met each of my markers. In the larger classes I made first cuts to get a closer comparison before placing in order.
When it came to the challenge, I had a line of exhibits which made me proud of our breed and exhibitors. They were an almost an interchangeable group of girls in size, construction and quality of decoration This was going to be a difficult choice, they were all truly representative of the breed and sex as described in the standard.
I kept six for a final look over and my choice was made. Mid Limit winner Chris Pickupâ€™s 18month old Dotlun English Rose at Roadcoach who had coped with changing handlers and runners without faltering had won the day. I called in 2nd from the class, Tolkain Morning Star. She had been a very close second in Mid Limit. But a final look around and I had to award RCC to the winner of Special Memorial Open class Jenny Alexanderâ€™s Offerdale Santtini. Unknown to me this RCC qualified her for a 5 RCC ticket which if I heard correctly gives makes her up. A delightful and totally unexpected consequence and I congratulate both her owner and handler.
The Best Puppy Bitch award went to Elaine Tillson,s Tamilanda Rose Gold at Elabri who won both puppy classes.
The Best Veteran in show was won By Sarah Morgan with her home bred Malbreow Wish Upon a Star,who shone brightly in in the ring today

Class 15 Baby Puppy Bitch. 1.
1st Howard Riddleâ€™s: Shydally Stars Aligned. Sparkling 4-month-old B/W Beautifully made and confident. Lovely head and clean bite, attractive ears, correctly set and carried. Well grown and muscled for age, correct angles front and back. Beautifully schooled moved freely with drive had no doubts about placing her first and later with my co- judge in agreement awarding Best Baby Puppy In show.
2nd Richardâ€™s: Arthica Youâ€™ll Be in My Heart at Hafwenna. A bit smaller than I and not as well decorated. Head still developing, good shoulders, but will need more, controlled, exercise to develop the correct volume and flexibility of muscle overall. Good legs and feet all round. Just needs time.
3rd Englandâ€™s Silverspot Allure of the Sea.

Class 16 Special Junior Veteran Bitch
This class has stepped up a gear since I last judged, the quality and number competing in open classes has led to a transfer to junior veteran of bitches who would normally have stayed in Open or Special Open. Is It time to consider a Champion class?
1st Morganâ€™s: Malbreow Wish Upon a Star: Only just a veteran and in superb coat and condition. Strong attractive head, good ears and eyes, good clean bite, elegant neck into well set and developed shoulders. Correct length of back, muscled quarters, good bend of stifle and well let down hocks. She presented a powerful, attractive picture. On the move everything fell in place and she flowed easily round the ring at correct pace with drive, a beautiful picture. Was in competition for the ticket. Easily Best Veteran bitch and with agreement Best Veteran in Show
2nd Watts & Jackson-Peatlingâ€™s: Ch Tamilanda Continental Song JW. Once again only just a veteran. In excellent coat and condition. A little finer in the head and a little lighter all round than 1 but showed and moved like the champion she is. Unlucky to have been in the same class.
3rd Neath-Coyne & Bakerâ€™s : Ch Buffrey Hanky Panky by Dalleaf JW

Class 17 Special Senior Veteran Bitch
1st Dawsonâ€™s: Washakie Endless Summer. 11year old. A classic bitch from this line like most Washakie their breeding can be recognised from across the ring. The coat and decoration still clean and clear in good condition carrying a little weight on shoulder but still moving at a controlled trot. I fell in love with this line nearly 50 years and they still bring a smile to my face 2nd Hartley & Griffithsâ€™: Creaganbrec Glory Be at Miragua. Another 11-year-old and again easily identifiable breeding. Not as eye catching as 1 but fit healthy and willing to compete moved freely

3rd Bardeyâ€™s Dalcross Caro Emerald

Class 18 Minor Puppy Bitch
1st Tillsonâ€™s Tamilanda Rose Gold ay Elabri. What a gorgeous young lady. Beautifully decorated 8month old, lovely head and ears which she used to effect, good bite, good colour eyes, long clean neck, well set shoulder leading into level topline and tail carried properly. Well constructured body, super front legs and tight cat feet. At the back well angled powerful drive, a beautiful picture. Schooled to perfection, Friendly, happy moved at an even trot keeping pace with her handler. A delight to see and judge, Best Puppy Bitch
2nd Alexander & Collierâ€™s Offordale Jazz: lovely young lady, with a skilled handler, a little younger than 1 and still developing her muscle and drive but will be competing on level ground soon. Excellent coat and decoration lovely head on a good strong neck, developing body, deep brisket, well boned, tight feet and neat nails, good quarters and drive
3rd Donnellyâ€™s Tamilanda Golden Leaf

Class 19 Puppy Bitch
1st Tillsonâ€™s Tamilanda Rose Gold at Elabri
2nd Nealâ€™s Tolkain Watseka: Good size shape and make. Attentive at the stand well decorated clean head, well used ears and eyes, lovely neck, level topline and well spotted tail. Well-muscled square stand but a bit over enthusiastic on the move, will soon settle into the job.
3rd Richardsâ€™ Hafwenna Just as Sane as I Am

Class 20 Junior Bitch
1st Quayleâ€™s Cubalibre Wishing Star: A very attractive liver Bitch good size and stature. Well spotted lovey face, strong legs, tight feet, neat tuck-up, well-defined quarters was being a bit mischievous today
2nd Stocks Sophtspot Sparkler at Nospar: Shorter coupled then 1. Good head, well bodied for size, topline and angulation very nice, tight feet. Would like more tuck- up
3rd Bridge, Meyer & Brittonâ€™s Akoni Buttery Dâ€™Or

Class 21 Yearling Bitch
1st Christieâ€™s Sophtspot Sugar Plum: Well developed and tidily spotted young lady. She has dark well shaped eyes, beautifully set and decorated ears, good stop, clean neck to shoulders loads of heart room, deep well developed brisket, strong legs and tight well maintained feet, lovely tuck up with well muscled quarter. Tail set and carried correctly ,nice bend of stifle moved as freely and strongly as you would expect from this construction both coming and going. Has a promising future.
2nd Hurstâ€™s Dvojica Firefly for Finnidal: Well developed young lady with clean lines. Good head, slightly shorter than 1. Well muscled, which spoke of plenty of exercise. Moved with drive and put up a strong challenge for this class. Splitting hairs, I preferred the decoration of 1.
3rd Stevensonâ€™s Dallyador White Snowflake at Macula

Class 22 Novice Bitch
1st Sampsonâ€™s Dalstorm Just Waltzing JW Such an attractive picture. Alert and responsive, she never takes her eyes off handler. Lovely head atop a really clean neck down to good shoulders. Would like a little more fore chest. Great depth of brisket and elbows well tucked in. Neat tuck up well constructed thighs which were well muscled. Clean tall which she used on the move. On stand she fills your eye, on the move the time and effort spent on training and exercise was clear to see. Decoration was not chocolate box but was very attractive.

2nd Frenchâ€™s Tamilanda Instant Sass: Good tight construction with everything in the right place. A little bigger then 1 and richly decorated. good head and neck lovely level topline and a long straight tail. Good depth of body a picture both standing and moving
3rd Donnellyâ€™s Tamilanda Golden Leaf

Class 23 Graduate Bitch
1st Sampsonâ€™s Dalstorm Just So Salsa: Immediately reminded me of what was referred -to as a good brood bitch slightly longer and heaver type than the winner of the last class (litter sister) and totally different decoration with well distributed smaller liver spots. Lovely head neck and shoulder, slightly longer in back. Really well-developed quarters. Strong legs all round and a good strong tail.
2nd Barnettâ€™s Salvadorada Happy Go Lucky: Just short of 2 years old this is a well developed Bitch. Attractively decorated, good bone, well-muscled and fit. Head ears and neck sits comfortable on a sound body standing or moving she looks a happy girl.
3rd Hurstâ€™s Dvojica Firefly for Finnidal

Class 24 Post Graduate Bitch
1st Neath-Coyne & Coyneâ€™s: Kelevra Pickle My Fennel with Buffrey JW Swiss JCh. Beautiful full on liver girl. Skilfully handled and presented in sparkling condition. Stands square and looks you straight in the eye, nothing shy here. Decoration is of the modern large spot, a rich chocolate. Movement as always is smooth, free, balanced, both she and the handler know their way round the ring.

3rd Daviesâ€™ Tamilanda Continental Boom

Class 25 Mid Limit Bitch
1st Pickupâ€™s Dotlun English Rose at Roadcoach. I make this girl just over 18 months old so I think she still has a bit of filling out to do. Nevertheless, she commands her space in the showring. Attractive beautifully decorated head, ears to die for. Every part of her carried and used to best effect. Clean neck set in to well-balanced shoulders. Lovely forechest takes you to honest strong legs and sound pasterns. Deep capacious chest down to elbows well tucked in. Neat underline. Hindquarters, developed, strong and balanced. A long well carried tail provides balance and steering. First and second thigh well developed, good bend of stifle and hocks well let down. As she fills out this picture can only improve Standing, she is completely with her handler. On the move they are one. She moves around as if she owns the ring. Strength drive and balance coming from within. BCC

2nd Nealâ€™s Tolkain Morning Star. A bit older and more mature than I yet so alike in many respects. This became more obvious when I studied photos from the show, very similar head neck and ears. A bit less decoration on the face. The body a touch shorter, marking visually stronger on the black but same level and proportion of white, Hind quarters very close match. Movement, both move with similar drive and pace. Very attentive to handler. Easily earned her placing
